REPRESENTATIVE ANDERSON ISSUES PROCLAMATION IN HONOR OF TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

WHEREAS, the teachers of Mississippi's 110th House District are the foundation for our children's intellectual possibilities; and

WHEREAS, they toil daily to mold the spirits, hearts and impressionable minds of our students in a way that will establish the preliminary foundations of success; and

WHEREAS, entrusted with our state's most valuable human resource, these individuals devote countless and tireless devotion to empower Mississippi's next generation of leaders; and

WHEREAS, moved by their stalwart dedication, we must celebrate our teachers for their selfless commitment that benefits us all; and

WHEREAS, teachers are the treasure chest cradling the most prized jewels in our society by enhancing their caliber to ensure that they will become productive world class citizens; and

WHEREAS, for these reasons and many other un-named reasons, we must seize every opportunity to convey the gesture of our gratitude by saying, "Thank you!" and

WHEREAS, it is the policy of this office to commend and acknowledge citizens who are making exceptional contributions that will have positive, far-reaching influence upon every facet of citizenry:

NOW, THEREFORE, on behalf by the Office of Representative Jeramey Anderson, we do hereby honor and show appreciation to the teachers of Mississippi's 110th House District and commend their laudable acts of kindness, generosity and unwavering commitment to Mississippi's educational processes.

This the 5th day of May, 2020.
